PER-902—Hospital Emergency Response Training for Mass Casualty Incidents (HERT)

March 28, 2016 • 8am to 5pm
Scott County Hospital • 201 Albert Avenue, Scott City, KS

This course is designed to provide medical operation guidance to hospitals, emergency medical services, (EMS), healthcare facility personnel, and others who may become involved in a mass casualty incident (MCI). The course provides the healthcare emergency receiver with an understanding of the relationship between a Hospital Incident Command System (IHICS), and scene Incident Command System (ICS), and other incident management systems used by municipal Emergency Operations Center (EOC). The course also provides guidance for Hospital Emergency Response Team design, development, and training. This is a hands-on course which culminates with small and large groups practical applications. Therefore participants must be physically and psychologically fit to wear personal protective equipment (PPE) during the training.

Topics

- Analyze the need for, composition of, and use of a Hospital Emergency Response Team during an emergency, MCI, or disaster situation
- Identify the criteria used to assessing patient medical attention priority using START and JumpSTART
- Recognize the step-by-step procedures for ambulatory and non-ambulatory decontamination performed in response to an MCI
- Select and use appropriate level of PPE as hospital first receivers in response to a disaster involving patient contamination
- Apply the proper techniques for monitoring or surveying patients for chemical, biological, or radiological contamination
- Conduct appropriate cut-out and decontamination operations for victims and staff during response to an MCI involving contamination

Prerequisites

It is required that participants complete the IS-100 .HCb, IS-200.HCa, and IS-700.a. All these courses can be found free online at FEMA's Independent Study website at http://training.fema.gov/IS/crslist.asp

It is also recommended that participants have successfully completed CBRNE or HAZMAT training at the operations level as specified in 29 CFR 1910.120(g)(6)(ii), at minimum.

Participants that wish to receive a FEMA certificate must have a FEMA Student Identification Number (SID). Please go to https://cdp.dhs.gov/femasid/ to register for a FEMA SID or update your contact information.

If you have specific questions about this training, please contact Darcy Golliher at dgolliher@meadeco.org or (620) 873-9066.

The deadline to register is March 27, 2016. Lodging arrangements or reimbursements will not be offered by KDEM for this session.
